

While at Cradle Mountain

Where to dine

At Cradle Mountain Chateau you'll enjoy fine Tasmanian wines and fresh local produce, prepared and served with flair. Quoll's Casual Dining is perfect for breakfast, lunch, coffee and light meals, 7 days a week. The elegant Brushtails Bar is the ideal place for a pre-dinner drink or nightcap - and you can dine in style at The Grey Gum, the signature à la carte restaurant. The Grey Gum offers heart-warming meals prepared with fresh Tasmanian produce to match the rugged atmosphere of Cradle Mountain. Fine Tasmanian reds and whites compliment this carefully selected menu and your selection of entrée, main and dessert. The Grey Gum is open every night for dinner.

Where to stay

Cradle Mountain Chateau is the perfect place to base your alpine experience. All 60 of the beautifully-appointed rooms and suites at Cradle Mountain Chateau have double-sliding doors opening on to their own small private decks for wildlife viewing and woodland views. All accommodation is ground-floor level. Rooms and suites range from a comfortable Deluxe Room with a queen and single bed to a Split Level King Spa room with a sunken lounge, king-size bed and lavish bathroom spa.

Service and facilities

Guest facilities at Cradle Mountain Chateau include:

- Complimentary parking
- Reception and tour desk facilities
- Internet access
- Lounge areas have open log fires and leather armchairs
- Full-size billiard table
- Two libraries
- Gift shop
- Masseur/Day Spa
- Disabled facilities
- Guest laundry
- Two restaurants
- Conference facilities
- The Wilderness Gallery

Calm Day Spa

Calm at Cradle Mountain Chateau is a haven of peaceful relaxation in the wilderness – a place to be pampered and rejuvenated as you soak up the delights of their range of revitalising treatments. With single and double massage and treatment rooms, soothing steam room, double bath and outdoor hot tub on the deck, Calm offers a relaxed and refreshing ambience – the perfect environment to indulge.

The Wilderness Gallery

See one of the world's finest collections of nature photography – ten rooms full of wild inspiration. Australia's largest privately owned gallery takes visitors on a remarkable journey showcasing images of wilderness destinations that cannot be easily accessed by visitors, opening up new worlds and connecting visitors with the environment.

Changing exhibitions in the Gallery's 10 rooms feature the work of acclaimed Australian and international photographers. Images are available for purchase and guided tours of the gallery are available by arrangement. To browse and purchase images online, please visit www.wildernessgallery.com.au

Set within the grounds of Cradle Mountain Chateau, The Wilderness Gallery is open 10am-5pm daily. Entry is free for Chateau guests.